PHILOSOPHY

There's an old saying in wine.

If it grows together, it goes together.

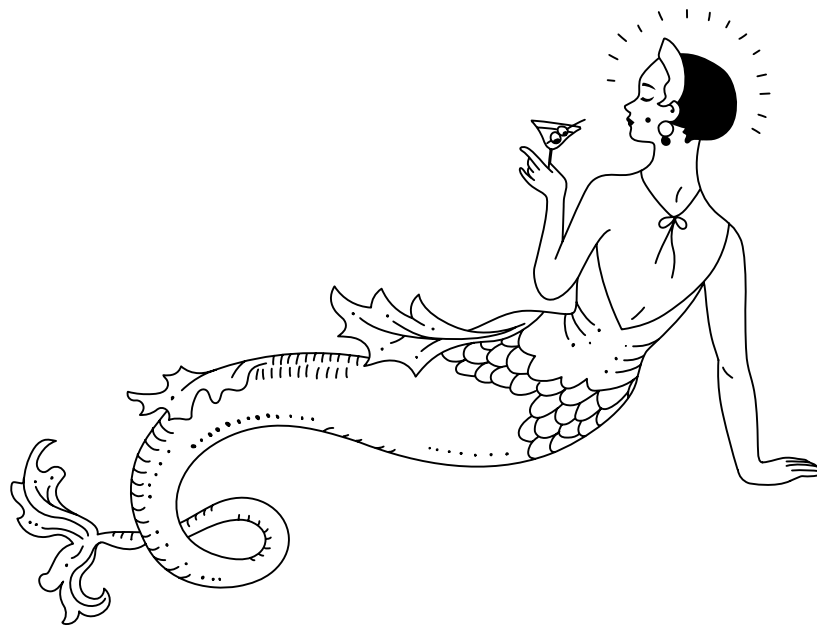

And similar to our culinary philosophy at The Georgian, our wine list is an ode to Italian excellence yet complimented by legendary global classics.

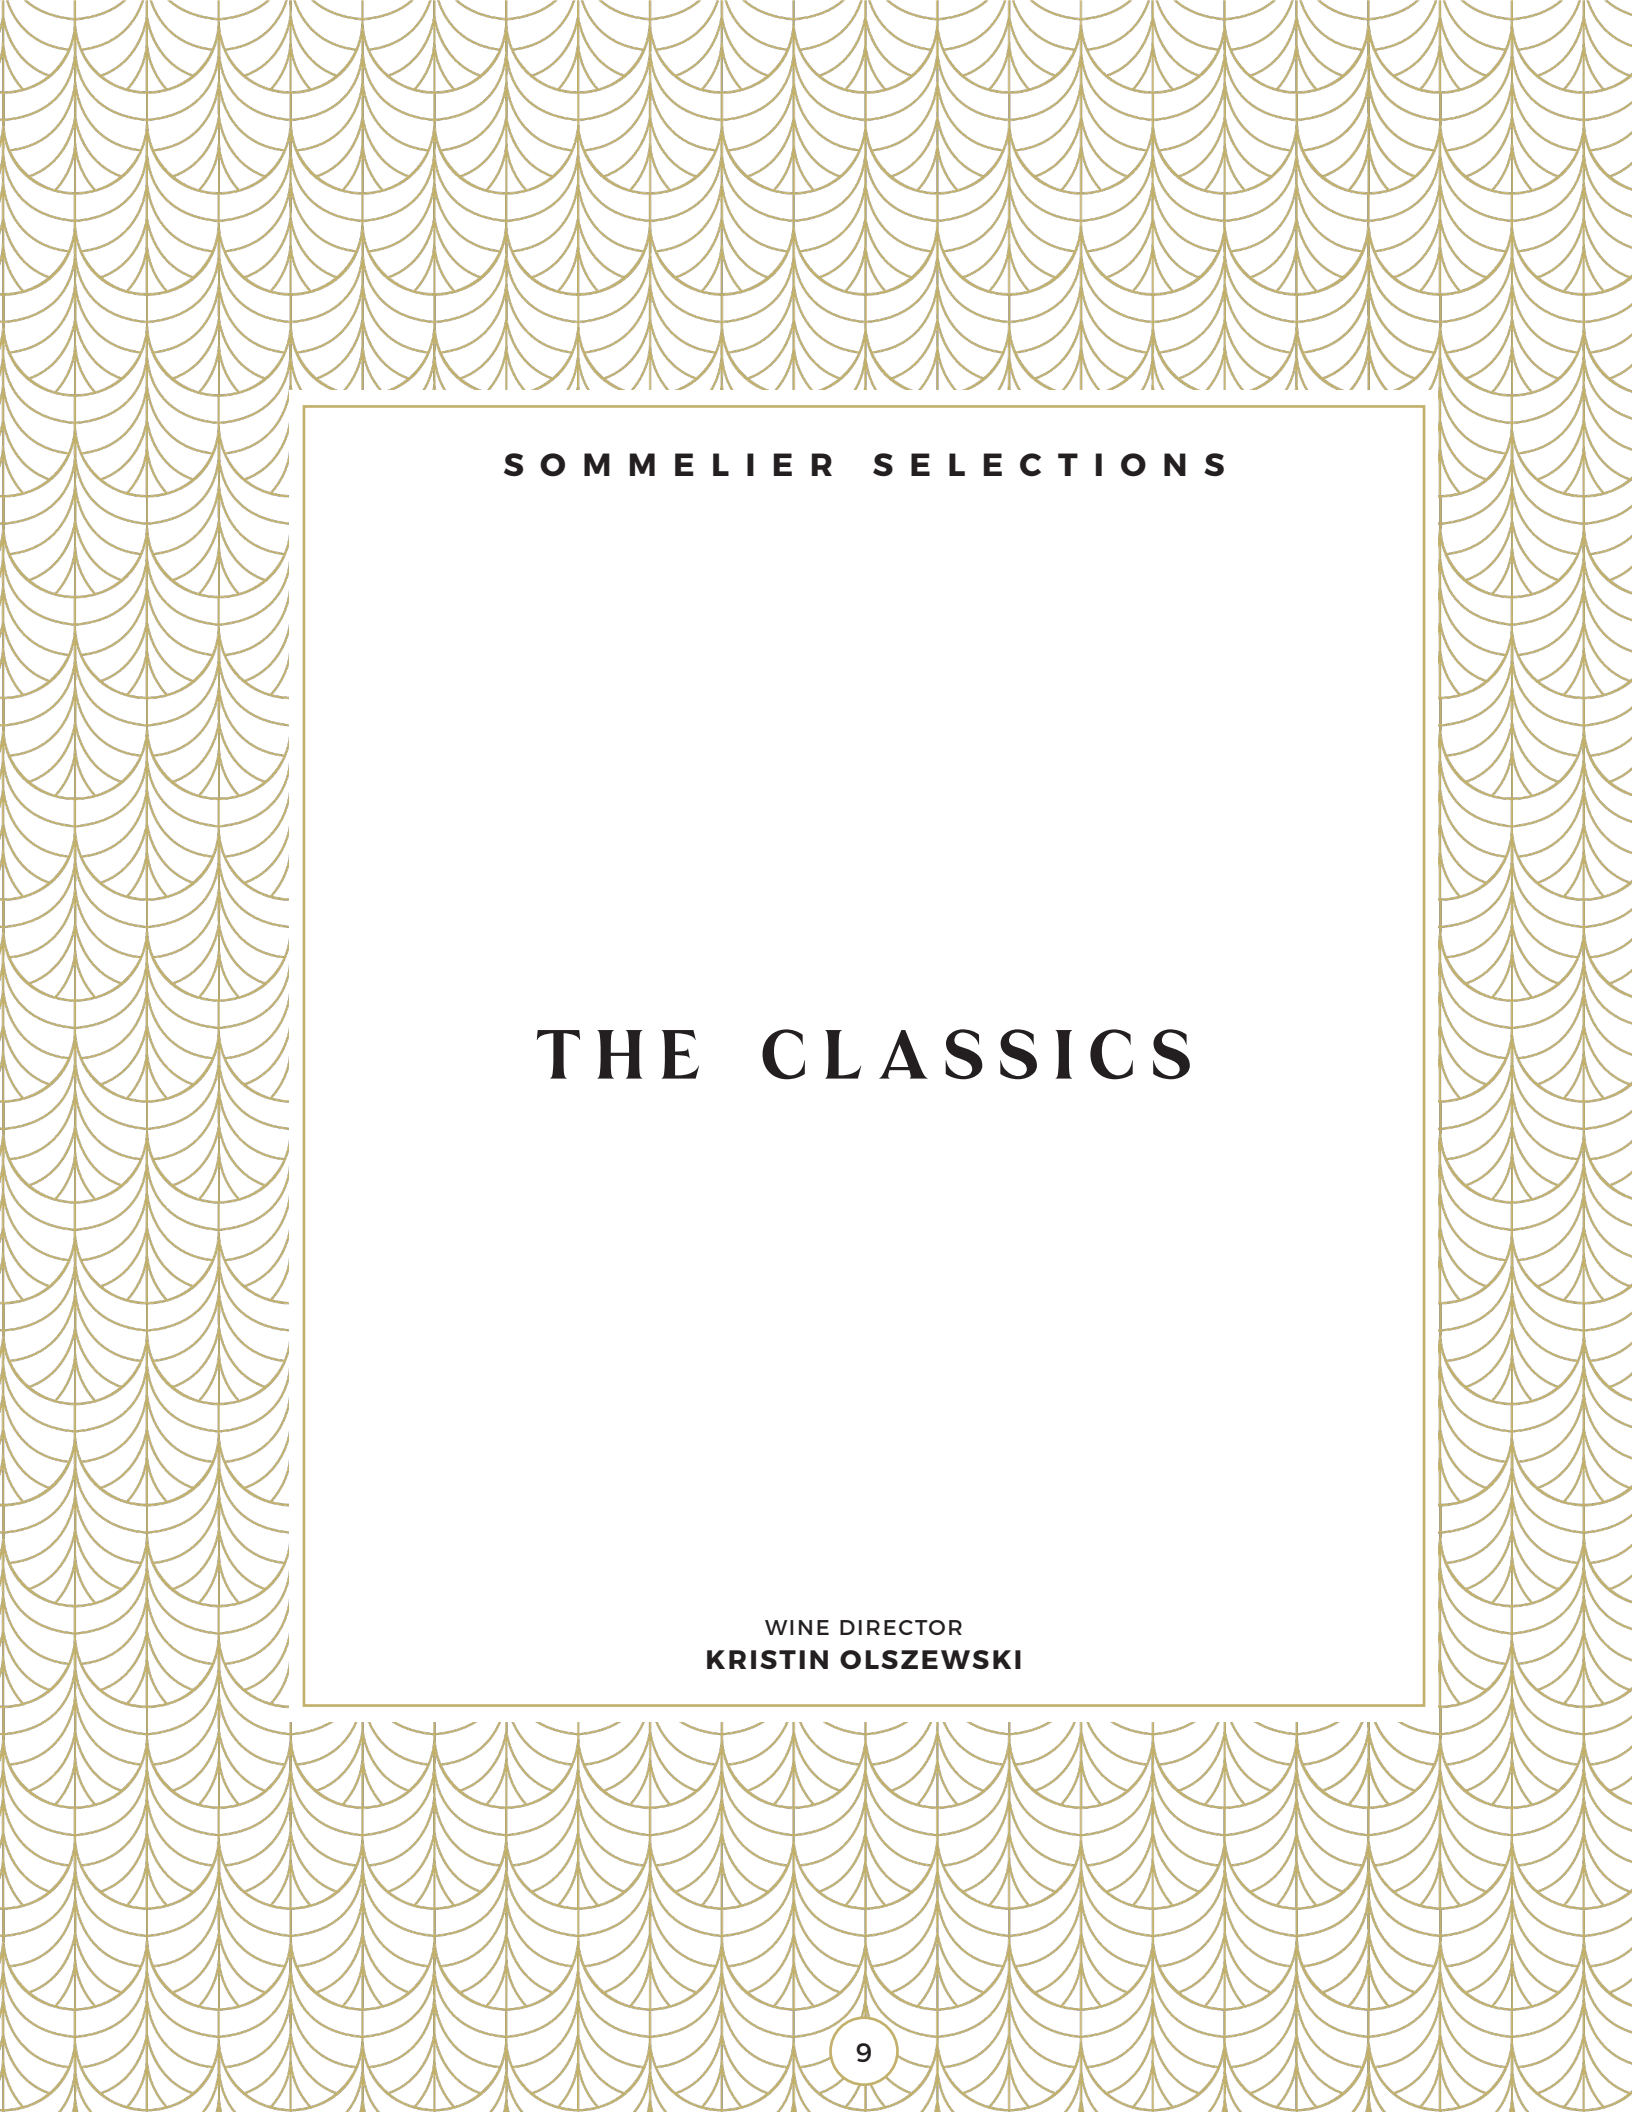

Italy has produced some of the world's most beloved and iconic wines. From the bold and structured Barolos of Piedmont to the elegant and floral Chiantis of Tuscany, Italian wines truly reflect the diverse and unique terroirs throughout the country.

Beyond Italy, we have curated a far reaching collection of producers - a mix of cult favorites and soon-to-be-discovered prodigies to showcase the beauty that arises from skilled winemaking and meticulously farmed terroir.

The wines on our list all check two boxes. One, they are all produced organically, sustainably, biodynamically, or naturally. Two, they are exceptional benchmarks for their respective style and region.

Just like everything else here at The Georgian, we focus on the phenomenal.
